Civ. No. 16-6287

ORDER

AND NOW, this 14th day of February, 2020, upon consideration of Defendants' correspondence (Doc. No. 169) raising administrative matters, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

- (1) Sequestration. No witness will be sequestered.
- (2) Witness Order. I encourage the Parties to exchange this information as described in Defendants' letter.
- (3) Scope of Examination. All but one of Plaintiffs' witnesses are City or Commonwealth officials—including the Secretary of the Commonwealth—and have been designated as potentially adverse. To spare these officials a full day in Court, the cross-examination of these witnesses by Defendants and Intervenors will not be limited to the scope of their direct examinations. The cross-examination of all other witnesses (including Dr. Halderman) will be limited by the scope of their direct examinations.
- (4) Exhibits. The Parties may at the hearing submit their additional exhibits, marked in the manner described. I will gladly receive any available exhibits before Tuesday's hearing.

(5) Allocation of Time. The Parties are best able to estimate the hearing's likely duration. I have cleared my calendar for the day and plan to conclude the hearing only after all evidence is presented and all testimony is heard. I will not impose time limits on either side.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
